ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER

THIS MATTER coming on to be heard and being heard by the undersigned Chief District Court Judge and makes the following findings:

1. That the local rules implementing child custody mediation entered June 27, 2007 required that all actions involving enforcement of custody and visitation orders be referred for mediation.
2. That these are not the type of actions that should be mandatory for mediation but rather be by consent of the parties or referral to mediation in the discretion of the presiding Judge.

BASED ON THE FOREGOING FINDINGS:

It is therefore ordered effective November 15, 2007, actions to enforce custody or visitation orders are not required to be sent to mediation. They may however be referred by consent of the parties or in the discretion of the presiding District Court Judge.

This the 6th day of November, 2007.
